

MORNING APPEAL

SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1879

THE TEMPERANCE LECTURE.

Dr. D. Banks McKenzie lectured at the Opera House last night upon the subject of "Temperance." The lecturer, who is, by the way, a fine looking gentleman, the possessor of an interestingly intelligent face and long flowing hair, was introduced by General T. D. Edwards. This gentleman's remarks were very appropriate, but a little too long for the occasion. The Doctor is master of the subject he advocates. From the moment he began his discourse to the end he was listened to with the most profound respect and interest. He does not argue the subject of temperance in the old stereotyped manner, but pursues a new and more effective line of argument. He does not confine himself to the portrayal of the physical miseries which are engendered by strong drink, but he delves into the moral ills resulting therefrom with such vigor and telling logic that he must by force of these facts accomplish great good in his laudable mission. His indictments against strong drink are irrefutable and based upon his personal experience in that particular. Dr. McKenzie lectures again this evening at the same place, and all who desire to hear an eloquent and logical speaker upon a subject in which all are interested are recommended to go.

On motion of Judge Hawley a representative committee, composed of His Excellency, Governor Kinkaid, Chief Justice Beatty and Lieutenant Governor Adams were appointed to attend the funeral, which takes place at Elko to-morrow, Sunday. The committee left on the train last night. On motion of Judge Leonard a committee was appointed to draught appropriate resolutions expressive of the sorrow and condolence of the State officers, composed of Judge Hawley, Secretary of State Babcock and Superintendent of Public Instruction Sessions.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

The following cases were decided and opinions filed yesterday:

County of Washoe, respondent, vs. County of Humboldt, appellant. Judgment reduced to $3,028.40, and as modified affirmed.

State ex rel, M. C. Lake vs. County Commissioners Washoe County. Proceeding dismissed.

J. T. Jeffries, administrator, etc., appellant, vs. James Walsh et al., respondents. Judgment reversed and cause remanded for a new trial.

J. B. Helm, respondent, vs. A. McLeon et al., appellant. Judgment reversed and cause remanded for a new trial.

Good News.—The North Carson Mining Company will resume work next week. A gentleman by the name of Sperling, formerly Foreman of that mine, came up from San Francisco yesterday morning and states that a new company has been organized with $25,000 subscribed in cash to continue sinking and prospecting on that property. A. S. Gould will continue to act as Superintendent. This is good news for this city, and we hope that the North Carson will yet turn out to be a bonanza.

TRANSFER MADE.—The Warm Springs, the scene of many a good time, of many a convivial night, passed into the hands of the State government yesterday, and will at an early day be utilized for State Prison purposes. The sum paid to Butts & George for the property was $12,000.

THE WEATHER.—The weather continues blustery and unpleasant. The hallucination that Spring is at hand was dispelled several days ago.

Yesterday morning a telegram announcing the sad but expected news of the death of ex-Governor L. R. Bradley was received in this city by Major Garrard, the late Governor's former private secretary. He died early yesterday morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Henderson, at Elko, of dropsy, a disease with which he had been afflicted for a long while. The late Governor was born in Orange County, Virginia, February 18, 1805. His parents possessed a little property, which estate he had to take charge of at the early age of thirteen years, when his father died. He not only did this but also took care of his mother and several brothers and sisters, the latter younger than he, at an age when most boys do not know what it is to have a serious thought. Such arduous duties devolving upon him, he naturally found no time to store his mind with a great amount of book knowledge; in fact, he could scarcely take advantage of the limited educational facilities that were afforded at the field schools, then in vogue in the State of Virginia. Such institutions as the public schools of the present time were not established in the South at that period. In 1844 he removed to Missouri, and was engaged in farming until 1852, when he took the California fever and crossed the plains with a large band of cattle. In 1853 he recrossed the plains and the following year came back with another band of cattle and horses; after which he settled down in San Joaquin County, California, extensively engaging in sheep and stock raising. The late Governor was very successful in his many business enterprises, and amassed great wealth; but his kind and generous disposition led him to endorse the business papers of so-called friends and otherwise assist worthy men, that it is doubtful whether he left much of an estate at the time of his demise. He began his public career in 1860, when he was sent as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention, and while absent from the State he was elected a member of the California Assembly on the Breckenridge ticket. In 1863, ascending, with his keen judgment, superior business advantages in that direction, he removed to Austin, in this State, and continued in the stock breeding business. His probity and integrity being proverbial among his friends and acquaintances, the Democratic party nominated him for Governor in 1870, and elected him the executive of this State by a majority of 1,250. After four years of faithful service he was renominated in 1874 for the same office, and re-elected by a majority of 2,500. Last year he was again nominated for a third term, but was defeated by J. H. Kinkaid by 492 votes. The surviving relatives of the deceased gentleman are a sister, Mrs. Coulter, resident at Los Angeles, Cal., and two daughters and one son, Mrs. Judge Belknap, of Virginia City, Mrs. Dr. Henderson and John R. Bradley, both resident at Elko. The time and place of the late Governor's funeral have not yet been announced. In the death of ex-Governor Bradley the Commonwealth loses a man who was the personification of honor and integrity. His nature abounded with the milk of human kindness, and his conscientiousness knew no bounds. As has been stated before, his early mental training was neglected by the force of arbitrary circumstances, but, still, he was the possessor of a very comprehensive mind. Whatever shortcomings may be charged to Governor Bradley, must be ascribed to errors of judgment rather than to those of his great heart. May his body and soul rest in peace from the turmoil and conflicts of this earth.

GLORIOUS NEWS FROM THE COWING AND ZABRISKIE MINE.—Yesterday the main ledge of this mine with a two foot casing was struck on the 153-foot level, and three feet of the ledge have been prospected, resulting in the finding of very rich rock, resembling in every way that taken out of the Con. Virginia mine. The owners are confident that they have at last struck a bonanza, and one that will give an impetus to mining enterprises in this country. If the Cowing and Zabriskie is really as good a mine as it is represented, and we have no reason to question it, the future prosperity of this city is secured, for the hills surrounding Carson will swarm with men seeking and finding the hidden treasures in them. Next Wednesday the above mine will be open for the inspection of all.

DEPARTURES.—The following passengers went south on the stage yesterday morning: Thos. Minter, Hy Welsh, H. Schofield, H. Beck, S. S. McMurry, S. Sigel, H. Woodruff, W. P. Hie's, J. Benjamin, L. Benjamin, T. S. White, Jas. Curry, Miss Armstrong, G. B. Harding, Chinaman.

SPORT.—The idlers about the County Buildings were much edified yesterday by seeing a batch of lads spilt in the street out of a large two wheeled wagon which was being drawn along by a lot of other boys. No bones broken.

AT HALF MAST.—The flags on the Capitol building, mint and other public and private buildings in the city were raised at half mast yesterday upon the receipt of the news of the death of ex-Governor Bradley.

Lieutenant Governor Adams will in all likelihood visit the Great East before his return from ex-Governor Bradley's funeral.

ILL.—We regret to learn that Mr. H. M. Yerington is quite ill in San Francisco.

A BECOMING TESTIMONIAL.

At a meeting of the State officers held at the Governor's office, Carson, March 21, 1879, for the purpose of expressing their sentiments and taking some appropriate action relative to the death of Hon. L. R. Bradley, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Hon. L. R. Bradley, now deceased, was for eight years the Chief Executive of this State, and during that time discharged the duties pertaining to that office in such a manner as to deserve the confidence, respect and esteem of the people, and having by his official acts proved himself to be a faithful and honest public servant, therefore,

Resolved, That in testimony of our respect for the deceased, a committee consisting of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Chief Justice be appointed to attend the funeral at Elko, Nevada, on the 23d instant, and accompany the remains to the place of interment.

THOMAS B. HAWLEY,
DAVID R. SESSIONS,
JASPER BABCOCK,
Committee on Resolutions.

VANDALISM.—Some wretch who has not the fear of man or eternity before him, cut and scratched upon the elegant mahogany doors of an up town saloon the night before last. It was a low and dirty piece of business, unworthy of the action of a decent man. The perpetrator most likely endeavored to run a liquor score at that establishment, and failing to do so he gave vent to his vindictiveness in that cowardly manner. The proprietor is willing to give the wretch enough whiskey to last him a full year, if he will present himself at the saloon and acknowledge the commission of that honorable act.

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday afternoon a pair of horses attached to an empty hay wagon ran away, taking a zig zag course over the town. They created some excitement and much dust in the back streets, but did no damage.

SCENERY.—Mr. T. F. Laycock, the scenic artist, is doing some splendid work on the scenery for the play of the "Nick of the Woods," to be presented by the Curry Engine Company on the 31st instant.

ARRIVALS.—The following passengers arrived from the south yesterday afternoon: J. Ross, Judge Bechtel, John Wagner, H. Wilson, W. Milliken, J. T. Callison. Mrs. E. R. Smith.

WETTING DOWN.—The sprinkler was out on Carson street yesterday afternoon settling the dust. Whether the corporation or individual citizens are paying for this luxury, they merit our thanks.

FROM BODIE.—Judge F. K. Bechtel came in from Bodie yesterday, and left for San Francisco last evening.

PERSONAL.—D. W. Virgin, the live and energetic lawyer of Genoa, was in the city yesterday.

STOCKS.—In Bodie stocks encouraging advances are noticeable.

The usual quantity of bullion came in from the south last evening.

STILL AT IT.—The dog poisoners are still pursuing their nefarious work. Yesterday morning three more valuable dogs were found dead from the effects of poison. It is greatly to be wished that the scoundrel who is engaged in this noble work may be caught. The Reno process of treating his kind with a coat of tar and feathers might work a bit of reformation in his murderous soul. A person who will engage in this low business of poisoning valuable animals certainly cannot be a good man.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—Allen C. Bragg, of Reno, has been appointed bookkeeper at the State Prison. Mr. Bragg is a competent gentleman and will no doubt do justice to his new position.

IN TOWN.—Our old time fellow townsman, John Wagner, came in from Esmeralda county yesterday afternoon.

TOM FLYNN, convicted of murder in the second degree, will be sentenced this morning.

To-day is the last day of the exhibition of the wonderful Strasburg clock.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE

EFFECTED BY

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS!

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS COMPANY.—W. J. HORNE, Proprietor.—Dear Sir: I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of Rupture of thirty years' standing, by one of your incomparable Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago.

I cannot describe the suffering, both physically and mentally, that I have undergone during that period, and now I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the ease and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect supporter. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on, and feel that I am perfectly CURED. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer any one to me on the subject of their merits. I am, truly yours, ALFRED J. BURKE, Chief Mail Clerk U. S. F. Daily Evening Post, San Francisco, July 20, 1878.

A Physician's 45 Years' Experience. COLUMBIA, Toulumne Co., July 16, 1878. W. J. HORNE, Esq.—Dear Sir: For some time past have used in my practice the California Elastic Truss, with entire satisfaction in most cases of complicated hernia of both sexes. During a practice of forty five years I have found no truss that would, with the same ease and certainty, retain the required adjustment, the pressure being always under the immediate control of the patient. The simplicity and ease of application is of itself a guarantee to every experienced physician. I have the honor to render by mail the amount due, knowing that I contribute to the alleviation of afflicted humanity. Yours, truly, J. P. TIBBITS, M. D.
